FAQS

When can I start?

The programme starts every autumn in Klessheim. The easiest way to apply is online.

What are the requirements?

You need an Austrian Matura certificate or an equivalent international qualification. Non-native English speakers must provide recognised proof of English proficiency at B2 level, such as TOEFL, Cambridge English or IELTS.

Why is there a college dress code?

Tourism is an industry in which a professional appearance matters. Formal clothing is standard in many businesses, particularly in upscale hotels, fine-dining restaurants and on cruise ships. Our dress code helps prepare students for the professional standards of the international hospitality industry.

The programme is taught in English. Will I be able to follow the classes?

Applicants are expected to have English skills at B2 level. As most students are not native English speakers, the international learning environment will help you further develop your confidence and language skills.

When can I start earning money?

After a short period, many college students start working at various events and earning their own money. A paid internship takes place after the first year. With your diploma, you can pursue career opportunities around the world or continue your studies to earn a Bachelor's degree.

Can I visit the college before applying?

Of course! Contact us at +43 (0) 662 851263-13 to arrange your individual trial day and spend a day with one of our college classes.

Can I complete the programme in two years?

As a college student, you have a guaranteed place in all required classes. If you are motivated and pass all your exams, you can complete the programme in two years. You may then continue your studies and earn a Bachelor's degree in an additional one and a half to two years.

What does the tuition fee include?

The college combines management education with extensive practical training in small groups. Class sizes are limited to a maximum of 30 students, while language and culinary classes are taught in even smaller groups. The tuition fee includes practical training, sommelier courses and the associated material costs.

How do I find a job?

Klessheim has its own Career Center with international job opportunities for interns and graduates. These range from Austrian hotels and restaurants to cruise ships and international trainee programmes. You can view the current list of offers at any time.

How quickly can I progress to a management position?

Like most young professionals, college graduates usually begin in an entry-level position. However, their practical and management-oriented education provides a strong foundation for career development.
